

PURE as Southern Sunshine

LIKE the soft, beaming sunlight of Dixie-land, Luzianne brings cheer to meal-time—breakfast, dinner and supper. Folks who try it once have a genuine affection for it ever after. Luzianne comes to you in clean, sanitary, air-tight tins. The flavor stays in—impurities stay out. Buy a can of Luzianne. Use the whole can. If you don't honestly believe it is better than any other coffee you ever tasted, tell the grocer to refund your money. But, try it.

A Sad Death.

It was a sad day when death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sugg and plucked from their midst a precious flower to transplant it in the garden above, where the sun never fades and time never grows old.

Little John Thayer was taken seriously ill about two days before his death. All that loving hands and medical skill could do was rendered to save his life, but God in His wisdom called him to heaven.

It seems hard to part with a dear child, but heaven grows nearer and brighter by their admission.

He was born Jan. 31st, 1916, and died Dec. 16th, 1917. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. P. Bridges and the body laid to rest in the Chapel cemetery. A Cousin.

A FAMILY MEDICINE

In Her Mother's Home, Says This Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-Draught: Relief From Head-ache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Ringgold, Ga.—Mrs. Chas. Gaston, of this place, writes: "I am a user of Theodor's Black-Draught; in fact, it was one of our family medicines. Also in my mother's home, when I was a child. When any of us children complained of headache, usually caused by constipation, she gave us a dose of Black-Draught, which would rectify the trouble. Often in the Spring, we would have malaria and chills, or troubles of this kind, and we would take Black-Draught pretty regularly until the liver acted well, and we would soon be up and around again. We would not be without it, for it certainly has saved us lots of doctor bills. Just a dose of Black-Draught when not so well saves a lot of days in bed."

Theodor's Black-Draught has been in use for many years in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the popularity which it now enjoys is proof of its merit. If your liver is not doing its duty, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Theodor's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, regulating the liver to its proper functions and cleansing the bowels of impurities. Try it. Insist on Theodor's Black-Draught and genuine. 25c
